

Summer Camp at Langeland

July 18-23, 2015

”Christians In The World – But Not Of The World”

You are invited by Evangelical Lutheran Free Church in Denmark
www.vivit.dk/sommerlejr

Welcome!

Five days in July – with old and new friends – with congregation and family – at the “Music School” in Humble, Langeland.

The school has good rooms for both families with children, couples, singles, youth and aged people. Two ladies will serve us in the kitchen preparing the meals for us and serve it in the dining hall. The school yard has benches where we can share, listen and talk. The small park gives room for ball games. And you may find a spot for a nap during the afternoon. Ristinge Beach 2 miles away is a wonderful beach for bathing.

The day at the camp begins with breakfast and hoisting the Danish flag. The morning devotion all weekdays at 9:30 gathers all of us, and we will ask our God and Lord to bless the day for each of us.

At 10 o'clock the children will be taught bible stories and sing. And the adults are invited to Bible Study in two sessions: 10-10.45 and 11.15-12.00.

Afternoons are open for free time, sport and bazaar. 4:30 there may be group sessions where we share the topics from the morning.

Evenings we have a family gathering. First part with special focus on the kids. Second part with hymns, preaching and evening prayer. The evening will be finished with a Café.

PREACHING and TEACHING

- * Morning Devotion and Evening Sermon: John 1-4.
- * Bible Study: Ephesians 5-6.

Theme & Program

"Christians in the World, but not of the World"

The theme stems from the Gospel of John chapter 14-17. Here Jesus shares with his disciples how it will be after his crucifixion and resurrection and ascension. How would their life be in this world?

Should they withdraw from the world into closed "congregational clubs"? Or would they surrender and accommodate to the way this world used to live, the world which crucified their Lord? - Are these alternatives also our only options today? Is it really possible to live in love and service in a world where we all part of evilness, selfishness, bad moral and death?

Jesus told his disciples – and also tells us: I will come to you and will be with you after my death and resurrection. I will rescue you. I and my Father will keep you from the evil one. And I send you to the world just like I was sent to the world (John 17:15-20).

Therefore we can live fearlessly in this world serving each other and our neighbor every day.

At the Summer Camp we will enjoy wonderful food, summer-sun, nature and culture at Langeland. Every morning we will listen to God's guiding and saving truth and hear him call us to live in this world by faith, in hope and in love. Evenings we will sing, and faith and hope will be preached into our lives.
